

The Miami Student Magazine - Designers Wanted!!

Hey! 🙌

The Miami Student Magazine is in search of their next Art Director and designers on this upcoming issue. This is open to anyone who has a good eye for layout & typography, and illustration skills are a big plus as well! To get a general idea of the work we do, here is last semester's issue.

Art Director Position:

We're looking for someone with a great eye for layout design and typography with leadership skills to match. This person will be working together with me as we:

- Design the cover story & general layout of the magazine
- Develop the TMSM Brand from its current identity onward
- Assign stories to designers + facilitate communication with writers
- Work with Editorial staff to create a full, cohesive issue

This person will be working in lockstep with me this Spring to train and will fully take over in the Fall. While the apprenticeship won't be paid, the full position will be as they assume the role in the next semester.

Design Team Openings:

If you're looking to up your layout/typography game while you build out your portfolio, this is the way to do it! You'll work alongside the art director, authors, and fellow designers as you:

- Create spreads for the stories you choose
- Pitch ideas at weekly meetings/critiques
- Communicating visuals and designs to the Art Director and Authors

This is a fun way to stretch your abilities into editorial design, and work on a team to tell stories visually.

If you or someone you know might be a good fit, email me, Mason Thompson, with your portfolio and which position you're interested in at thomp227@miamioh.edu. I'll reach out with further information regarding an interview (for art director) or a general meeting for prospective designers. Thanks!
